Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo
Opens 9th Regional Office in Marin County This Month

Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo (“AALRR”) announces its upcoming expansion to Marin County. AALRR will open its ninth regional office in order to accommodate the rapid growth of its public sector practice in Northern California. The newest location, at 1050 Northgate Drive in San Rafael, is currently being remodeled to suit the firm’s needs and will open at the end of January 2017.

AALRR is pleased to report that the firm’s success is making this expansion possible. The new office will complement AALRR’s Northern California locations in Pleasanton, Sacramento, and Fresno, along with its five offices in Southern California.

Jennifer Fain, Partner in Charge of the new Marin location, states, “Marin County and its surrounding areas have become an increasingly important part of the firm’s practice. We are excited about the opportunities this office represents, and the ability it will provide us to more efficiently serve our clients as we continue to grow.”

Jim Hogeboom, Superintendent, Novato Unified School District, agrees: “Atkinson, Andelson has consistently provided us with high-quality representation. Now we’re looking forward to having counsel just a few miles away.”
