Congratulations to the 2014 Education Law Technology Conference BookSmart Winners

Cerritos, Calif. — Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo (“AALRR”) would like to congratulate its 2014 Education Law Technology Conference BookSmart winners. Attendees of the 4th Annual complimentary Education Law Technology Conference participated in a drawing to win one of seven Apple iPads given away through AALRR’s BookSmart Program.

This year’s BookSmart winners were:

- Coastline Regional Occupational Program
- Coronado Unified School District
- Garden Grove School District
- Newman Crow’s Landing Unified School District
- Saddleback College
- San Diego County Office of Education
- Stanislaus County Office of Education

BookSmart was established by AALRR as a library outreach program. Certificates from the BookSmart program can be redeemed for books, e-books, or tablets for use in libraries and classrooms. AALRR is devoted to student achievement and is proud to partner with the education community and those organizations that promote reading and academic success.

AALRR’s 4th Annual 2014 Education Law Technology Conference was a daylong meeting focused on the role of technology in education. The three sessions took place September 19th at the Cerritos Sheraton, September 22nd at the San Diego County Office of Education, and September 25th at the Modesto DoubleTree by Hilton.
