

Daryl Camp

ACSA President & Superintendent, San Lorenzo Unified School District

Dr. Daryl F. Camp began serving as the superintendent of the San Lorenzo Unified School District in 2019. Previously, he served for seven years as the superintendent of the Riverbank Unified School District. Dr. Camp has been a public-school educator in California for over 30 years, beginning in 1991 as a substitute teacher and coach in the Oakland Unified School District.

Dr. Camp is currently the president for the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA). Dr. Camp's professional leadership includes service as Region VII president of the Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) for 2015-16 and as a member of the ACSA Board of Directors for three years. In 2008, he received the Valuing Diversity Award from ACSA Region VII. He authored an article, entitled Talking about Racism in Our Schools, that was published in the April 2009 edition of ACSA's Leadership magazine, and another, Attracting, Recruiting and Retaining Teachers of Color, that appeared in that publication in 2019. From 2015 to 2019, Dr. Camp served on the Board of Directors for the state's Fiscal Crisis and Management Assistance Team (FCMAT). He is now a Masters in Governance faculty member and governance consultant for the California School Boards Association (CSBA). He recently completed a two-year term, from 2020-2022, as president of the California Association of African American Superintendents and Administrators (CAAASA). In 2022, Dr. Camp was honored as a Distinguished Alumni for California State University, Hayward.

Dr. Camp earned his bachelor's degree at Morehouse College in 1991, his master's degree at California State University, Hayward in 2001, and his doctorate in educational leadership at California State University, Sacramento in 2011. While at Morehouse, he was inducted into the prestigious Phi Beta Kappa scholar society. Dr. Camp is married to his college friend Janee Cornelison Camp, whom he met during the first week of freshman year at Morehouse while she was in her first year at Spelman College. They have two adult sons, Kendall and Myles.
