Guard Against Common Employment Mistakes

Today's workplace is risky and complex. Managing employee relations while operating a business can often result in unwanted lawsuits. We will explore common mistakes employers make in managing employees and demonstrate how employees use these mistakes as ammunition for a lawsuit.

We will review five areas as a reminder to employers that paying attention to common procedures/situations they encounter on a daily basis, with a focus toward proactive compliance with various labor laws and recent court decisions, will limit company liability.

We will provide insight on these five areas of concern:

- Maintaining Up-to-date & Legally Compliant Policies & Procedures
- Accurately Pay Employees
- Properly Manage Disabilities & Leaves
- Plan & Correctly Execute Discipline & Terminations
- Train Managers & Supervisors

Join us as we provide practical guidance on these areas to address compliance issues before they escalate.

Join us for this complimentary informative session.
