

C.A.S.H. Board Approves Six New Members to the Legislative Advisory Committee

The C.A.S.H. Board of Directors approved six new members to the Legislative Advisory Committee.

Ted Rozzi, Chair of the C.A.S.H. Nominating Committee along with Board Member Jenny Hannah, Past Chair Dave Doomey, C.A.S.H. Vice-Chair Joe Dixon, and C.A.S.H. Chair Cathy Allen reviewed 19 nominations for the three public and three private seats vacant on the Committee. While all candidates nominated were highly qualified to serve on this flagship committee, we congratulate the following candidates that were appointed:

- Larry Ferchaw, Senior Director, Dolinka Group
- Patrick Gunn, Partner, Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo
- Dwayne Mears, Principal, The Planning Center DC&E
- Raul Martinez, Director of Maintenance & Operations and Facilities, Calxico Unified School District
- David Miranda, Manager – Facilities & Planning, Tustin Unified School District
- Heather Steer, Facilities Planner, Western Placer Unified School District

The C.A.S.H. Board and staff look forward to working with these individuals to help shape the future of legislative and regulatory issues surrounding California school facilities.

C.A.S.H. thanks the following Legislative Advisory Committee

The Legislative Advisory Committee is advisory in nature. Its purpose is to provide the C.A.S.H. Board of Directors with an annual draft legislative platform and recommendations on action/positions to be taken by C.A.S.H. on existing or pending legislation. This committee traditionally meets six times a year. Membership on this committee is by nomination and appointment by the C.A.S.H. Board of Directors Nominating Committee.
