

August

Join AALRR attorneys as they present on critical matters—including those involving labor relations, governance, facilities and personnel issues—that you and your district may face.

Want Success?

Atkinson, Andelson, Loya, Ruud & Romo’s Training Network provides straightforward, practical information that helps you to meet these daily challenges with confidence.

We are confident that the increased knowledge and understanding you will gain from the presentations will serve to even better address the needs of California’s students.
